NARRATIVE

Officer B. Arzikovic #190 reports the following event that occurred in the Village of Pleasant Prairie, County of Kenosha, State of Wisconsin.

On Saturday 07/30/2022, I was working in official capacity for the Pleasant Prairie Police Department. I was in full duty uniform and operating marked police squad 36.

At approximately 1022 hours, I was dispatched to 11314 8th Ave for a suspicious activity call. Caller reported hearing a loud bang and his mother telling him to call the police. Caller was [REDACTED] and later identified as: [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] was told by his [REDACTED] sister that the stepdad was trying to break into their mother's phone. The [REDACTED] was later identified as: [REDACTED]. The mother was later identified as: [REDACTED] and the stepfather was later identified as: ANTHONY L PERRINE, W/M DOB: 01/18/1985, TX: 262-620-3409. Officer Steinmetz #186 and myself arrived on scene at the same time.

Upon arrival, I was greeted at the door by both children. [REDACTED] stated her step dad threw her mom's phone on the ground. I proceeded up the stairs, and observed ANTHONY exiting the room. ANTHONY stated everything was fine and they were just having a little spat. I asked ANTHONY to speak with Officer Steinmetz as I interviewed [REDACTED] was located within the bedroom sitting on the bed. I asked her what happened and she stated that she didn't really want to say anything and just wanted ANTHONY to leave. I informed her that one of the kids called 911 and I wanted to know what happened. [REDACTED] stated "If I say anything, it's going to be worse for me, I told the kids to call the Police before it escalated". I asked what the argument was about. [REDACTED] stated ANTHONY proposed being in an open relationship due to his heavy work schedule. Consequently she found someone to be in an open relationship with and ANTHONY became upset. ANTHONY wanted to get into [REDACTED] phone and she refused. ANTHONY went downstairs to [REDACTED] daughter, asking what the passcode was. [REDACTED] advised [REDACTED] to not answer the question, so he proceeded back up the stairs. Shortly after, the kids heard a loud bang (presumably the phone being broken). [REDACTED] stated ANTHONY grabbed her phone and broke the device. [REDACTED] showed me the phone and I observed a cracked screen. [REDACTED] then informed the kids to call the police.

I told [REDACTED] that domestic issues [REDACTED] this one only get worse. She stated she knew that, adding "he fucked me up the other day" while lifting up her pants leg displaying a bruise located just below her left knee. I observed the bruising and later determined that ANTHONY had hit her on 07/26/2022. [REDACTED] was reluctant to provide more detailed information about the incident. On 07/26/2022 she came home very intoxicated, and ANTHONY confronted her about the other relationship. [REDACTED] stated the argument resulted in her slapping ANTHONY across the face, consequently she received the bruise on her leg. I asked if she gave ANTHONY consent to hit her and she stated no. An additional case number was generated for the 07/26/2022 event, See case number: 22-11300 for further information. ANTHONY was not questioned in reference to that event as he was in custody at that time being transported to KCJ.

[REDACTED] stated "that's why I told my kids to call the police, because he was getting angry again" referencing the event on 07/26/2022. [REDACTED] stated she filed for a divorce about a month and a half ago. She was worried about ANTHONY's station, stating he was the owner of Lou Perrine's and had law enforcement in his pocket.

Officer Steinmetz interviewed ANTHONY downstairs. ANTHONY stated the altercation was only verbal, however he did break her phone. ANTHONY also claimed he paid for her cell phone and the coverage. ANTHONY was taken into custody for Domestic Violence/Disorderly Conduct at 1057 hours. He was handcuffed behind the back by Officer Steinmetz. See Officer Steinmetz's supplemental report for further information. [REDACTED] waived the 72 hour no contact prohibition, and signed the bottom of the paperwork. Officer Steinmetz transported ANTHONY to the Kenosha County Jail. See attached material for the 72 hour no contact paperwork.

[REDACTED] refused to fill out and sign a written statement. Her answers on the Kenosha County Domestic Abuse Worksheet differed from her verbal responses. Very often [REDACTED] would acknowledge she wouldn't put anything into writing to help the case. I filled out each of the questions on the paperwork with her responses. See attached material for further information. A victim rights pamphlet was left at the residence. Kenosha Juvenile Crisis worker Brianna was contacted and informed of the domestic incident.

[REDACTED] was afraid she would receive a form of physical, mental and financial consequences from speaking with me. She stated she relied on ANTHONY for financial reasons, and his arrest would make everything really difficult for her.

[REDACTED] stated she called a friend named [REDACTED] after the event. Stating she didn't tell them what happened only that she wanted to see them later.

Officer body camera footage is available for viewing under case number:22-11298.

NARRATIVE

I, PO Steinmetz #186 report:

On 7/30/22 at about 10:22hrs, PO Arzikovic #190 and I were dispatched to 11314 8th Ave, in the Village of Pleasant Prairie, County of Kenosha, in the State of Wisconsin, for a family trouble. I was in full patrol uniform and marked squad #40. I was utilizing body camera and arbitrator dash camera. Prior to my shift I conducted a squad check and checked the rear seat of my squad. No contraband was located. After transport to jail, I checked my rear seat again. No contraband was located.

Dispatch advised PO Arzikovic and I while in route that the caller was a [REDACTED], and his little sister that heard a loud bang. They were told by their mother to call the police. Caller's advised that their mother and step father were in the bed room, they heard a loud bang, but no arguing. Caller's little sister was 7 years old.

Upon arrival PO Arzikovic and I approached the residence from the south. The residence was a two story white residence. We made contact at the front door with caller and little sister. They advised mom and step dad were upstairs in their bedroom. PO Arzikovic announced while going up the stairs. A M/W came to the top of the stairs and stated that everything was fine.

The M/W was identified by my verbally as Anthony L. Perrine 1/18/85. He came down stairs and spoke with me. Anthony advised that him and his wife [REDACTED] are going to some marital issues and he didn't want to speak more about the personal matters. Anthony advised that they were in verbally arguing, but not loud. Anthony stated that he did throw [REDACTED] phone, which he pays for, but other than that the children couldn't even hear their disagreement. Anthony denied anything getting physical between him and [REDACTED]. Anthony also did not fear for his safety, but did mention that he fears for [REDACTED] mental stability.

Anthony advised that him and [REDACTED] were married and both resided at that residence. Anthony asked how this process works. I informed him of Domestic Relationships which he and [REDACTED] have. I informed him of the mandatory arrest procedures in WI regarding domestic violence situations if incidents meet the criteria for arrest.

Anthony stated that they had an argument earlier in the week also, but didn't mention any further details, other than they worked through that and they're back to where they were again.

The children names are: [REDACTED] Anthony did not know their date of births at the time. See PO Arzikovic's report for further information on juveniles.

PO Arzikovic spoke with [REDACTED]. See his report for details regarding her statement. PO Arzikovic and I spoke, which he stated that he had probable cause for Domestic Violence Disorderly conduct and mentioned another incident that occurred the other day as well. I informed him what Anthony advised me.

PO Arzikovic advised Anthony that he was under arrest for DV DC. We escorted him to get a shirt, shoes, and his wallet. Anthony was handcuffed by me, which was checked for proper fit, double locked, searched, and placed in the rear seat of my squad on the driver side. Rear camera was activated.

PO Arzikovic returned with the Pleasant Prairie Police Department Domestic Abuse Enforcement Notice (72 hour no contact) which was waived by [REDACTED]

I transported Anthony to the Kenosha County Jail. I forgot to call in route to the jail, but my ending time and mileage were logged through dispatch notes. See call notes. Prior to escorting Anthony into the jail, I placed my weapons in a temporary lock box inside the sally port. Anthony was escorted into the jail and turned over to jail staff without incident.

I cleared with a supplemental report.
